

YEAR IN REVIEW 2014

Feb. 7-23 - The XXII Olympic Winter Games held in Sochi, Russia.

Feb. 12-13 - BJU has two consecutive snow days.

March 18, 20, 22 - Giuseppe Verdi's Aida is the biggest opera production in BJU history.

March 8 - Malaysian Airlines flight 370 disappears over the Gulf of Thailand.

July-August - ALS Ice Bucket Challenge pervades social media.

Aug. 6 - Space probe Rosetta reaches comet 67P/Churyumov-Gerasimenko.

Aug. 9 - Ferguson, Missouri, in turmoil following the shooting of Michael Brown by a police officer.

Nov. 4 - Election Day: BJU grad Asa Hutchinson elected governor of Arkansas, first BJU grad to become a state governor.

February - Ebola outbreak begins in West Africa.

March 21 - Russia annexes Crimea.

May 28 - Maya Angelou, author of I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings dies at 86.

June 12 to July 13 - FIFA World Cup held in Brazil.

Aug. 11 - Actor and comedian Robin Williams commits suicide at 63.

Aug 19 - American journalist James Foley beheaded by ISIL.

Sept. 19 - University holds investiture ceremony for Dr. Steve Pettit as 5th president of BJU.